A Publication of the River Forest Public Library

September 2007

The mission of the River Forest Public Library Staff and Board of Trustees is to develop, publicize and deliver a wide range of high-quality library services to the community.

Things to Look Forward to in October!

Family Fireside Halloween

On Friday, October 26th from 7-9 PM come explore the library in the dark! Wear your costumes, bring your flashlights, and join us at the library for an after hours Spooky Storytime. We'll have Halloween games, a flashlight hunt, and spooky stories by the fireplace. Refreshments will be served following the evening activities. Registration is required; please sign up at the Children's Desk.

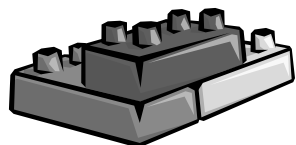

An Afternoon with Franklin D. Roosevelt

Join us at the library on Monday, October 8th at 2 PM as we welcome noted actor R.J. Lindsey in his portrayal of Franklin D. Roosevelt. As FDR, he will speak about politics, the Depression, the war and more. Come see history brought to life! This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

LEGOS @ the library

On Saturday, October 13th from 2 - 4 PM bring your legos to the library and create a masterpiece! Meet other lego lovers and get some great ideas. Photos of each builder & creation will be posted in the library and available online. Kids ages 1st grade and older (please bring your parents!) are welcome to attend. Registration is required.

Talking Kitchens and Baths with Jean Stoffer

Come to the library on Thursday, October 11th at 7 PM to hear renowned kitchen designer Jean Stoffer talk about new and creative ways to think about kitchen and bath design.

She'll also share tips on how to find a designer, what to look for in a contractor, and the remodeling process. A slideshow of images will be part of the presentation and questions are welcome!

Book Discussion Reminder

For the month of October, the afternoon and evening book discussion will be reading A Farewell to Arms as a part of the Big Read. For more information on the Big Read and a complete list of programming, visit www.oppl.org.

Stop by the library to pick up a copy of the Fall Program Brochure for a full list of family, children's, teen and adult programs. Make sure to mark your calendar with events for this fall!
